

Concept 1: Synesthete's Clock

For someone with grapheme synesthesia each number (and letter) has a perceived color. For the clock, there are 6 colored bars displaying time through the change of color. From left to right, the bars represent hours, minutes, and seconds and will use military time. The time in the illustration below is: 16:33:57.

